Section 1: Council Verdict

45

Risk Level: HIGH

Recommendation: AVOID

No summary available.

Section 2: Three Persona Analysis

Consumer Advocate N/A Confidence: N/A Reasoning: The contractor presents a confusing and potentially deceptive operational picture. The primary concern is a severe geographic and corporate identity mismatch. The business is listed in Lake Worth, TEXAS, but all verifiable operational data points to Lake Worth Beach, FLORIDA. The Google Maps HQ search found no Texas location, while the Google Maps Local search	Fair Arbiter N/A Confidence: N/A Reasoning: The contractor presents a mixed but largely positive picture. The strongest evidence comes from customer reviews: Google Maps shows 8 reviews with a 5.0 average rating, and Yelp/Yahoo indicates 89 reviews with a 4.8 average. The REVIEW_ANALYSIS summary confirms these reviews appear authentic, with specific project	Synthesizer N/A Reasoning: No dialectic audit data available. Stronger Case: N/A returned a Florida address (1429 Lakeview Dr, Lake Worth Beach, FL 33461) with 50 reviews and a 5-star rating. The website (proscreenenclosures.com) is inaccessible (403 Forbidden), preventing verification of claims. The BBB search for the Texas entity returned 'not found,' but a Google News result shows a BBB profile for a Florida entity with the same name, which is NOT accredited. This suggests the Texas listing may be a shell or a misrepresentation of a Florida business operating in Texas without proper local establishment. The review analysis, while scoring the reviews as authentic, explicitly flags a critical discrepancy: 'Potential name confusion between 'AAA Pro Screening Inc' (DFW) and 'ProScreen Plus, LLC' (FL) suggests possible review aggregation across distinct entities.' This means the positive reviews from Florida customers may be incorrectly attributed to the Texas entity, creating a false impression of local reputation. There is a single 3-star review in the Florida dataset complaining of incomplete work and poor design/drainage planning. No Texas court records, liens, or complaints were found, but this is likely due to the business's primary activity being in Florida. The lack of any digital footprint (ANGI, HomeAdvisor, Houzz, details, varied writing styles, and a mix of praise (7 glowing reviews) and one detailed critical review (3-star). The critical review mentions poor design and drainage issues, which is a legitimate concern but represents only 1 of 8 visible reviews. The owner (Ivan) is repeatedly praised for honesty, attention to detail, and quality workmanship. No legal red flags were found: COURT_RECORDS search across four counties found no cases, COUNTY_LIENS had no records, and EPA/OSHA searches were clean. However, significant data gaps exist: the business appears to operate in both Texas (Lake Worth, TX) and Florida (Lake Worth Beach, FL), creating confusion. The Texas entity lacks verification on BBB, Angi, BuildZoom, and Texas SOS/Franchise searches. The website (proscreenenclosures.com) returned a 403 error, preventing verification. The charitable interpretation: this could be a small, reputable sole proprietorship or family business that hasn't formally registered as an LLC in Texas, focusing instead on customer service. The Florida address with strong local news) for a Texas-based contractor is a major red flag. The worst reasonable interpretation is that 'AAA Pro Screening Inc' of Lake Worth, TX, is either a non-operational entity, a recently created shell to capitalize on the reputation of a Florida business, or a case of significant misrepresentation where a Florida contractor is soliciting Texas work without a local presence, license, or insurance, and is potentially aggregating reviews from a different market.

Key Concerns:

Severe Geographic Mismatch: Business claims Texas location but all verifiable activity (address, reviews, BBB profile) is in Florida., Potential Review Misrepresentation/Aggregation: Positive reviews are from Florida customers for a potentially different legal entity, creating a false local reputation in Texas., Lack of Texas Digital Footprint: No presence on major contractor platforms (ANGI, HomeAdvisor), local news, or verifiable Texas business records (SOS search failed)., Inaccessible Website: Website returns 403 Forbidden, preventing verification of claims, licensing, insurance, or service area., BBB Non-Accreditation: The Florida BBB profile exists but is not accredited, and the Texas entity is not found.

reviews suggests possible relocation or dual operation. The absence on major platforms could indicate they rely on word-of-mouth rather than paid advertising. The single critical review shows they aren't perfect, but the overwhelming positive feedback suggests generally satisfied customers.

Section 3: Red Flags

HIGH

Severe geographic/entity mismatch. Business is listed in Lake Worth, TX, but all verifiable activity (address, reviews, BBB profile) is for Lake Worth Beach, FL.

HIGH

Potential review misrepresentation. Positive reviews are from Florida and may be aggregated or incorrectly attributed to the Texas entity, creating a false local reputation.

MEDIUM

Complete lack of Texas digital footprint. No presence on ANGI, HomeAdvisor, Houzz, or local news for the Texas location.

MEDIUM

Inaccessible website and unverifiable business status. Website returns 403 Forbidden, and Texas SOS/Franchise tax searches did not confirm registration.
