Contractor ID: 200	Audit Date: January 12, 2026
Category: greyPoor	Google Reviews: 0

Section 1: Council Verdict

Risk Level: MODERATE

Recommendation: NOT_RECOMMENDED

No summary available.

Section 2: Three Persona Analysis

Consumer Advocate N/A Confidence: N/A Reasoning: My analysis reveals a contractor with a strong public-facing image but several underlying concerns that warrant a skeptical homeowner's attention. The primary positive signals are a BBB A+ rating with accreditation (since 2020), a high Google	Fair Arbiter N/A Confidence: N/A Reasoning: The evidence presents a contractor with strong positive signals but also a notable discrepancy that requires charitable interpretation. On the positive side: 1) Google Maps shows 227 reviews with a 4.9 average rating, with recent, detailed reviews mentioning specific employees	Synthesizer N/A Reasoning: No dialectic audit data available. Stronger Case: N/A
---	---	---

Maps rating (4.9/5 from 227 reviews), and no liens or court records found in the limited searches conducted. The Google reviews are detailed, mention specific employees, and describe positive experiences, which suggests a core of satisfied customers. However, significant red flags emerge. The business was founded in November 2019, making it a relatively young company (6 years), which contradicts the 'Decades of Experience' claim found in the Google Maps snippet. This is a direct and verifiable inconsistency. The review ecosystem shows a major discrepancy: a stellar 4.9 on Google versus a poor 2.6 on Yelp (based on 5 reviews). While the Yelp sample is small, the Review Analysis flags complaints of poor communication and project delays there, which are common, serious issues in contracting. The concentration of 227 reviews on Google, with many posted in a tight 3-4 month window, alongside a near-total absence of negative feedback, is statistically unusual and raises (Lacey, Kara Hensley, Camden Upton) and specific work (roof replacement, gutters, skylights). The content shows varied writing styles and specific experiences, suggesting authenticity. 2) BBB shows an A+ rating, accreditation since 2020, and no complaints listed, indicating good complaint handling and business practices. 3) The business has been operating since 2019 (6 years), showing longevity. 4) No liens or court records were found in searches across four counties, suggesting no major legal issues. 5) Nextdoor shows a business presence with recommendations. The main red flag is the Yelp discrepancy: 2.6 rating with only 5 reviews. The charitable interpretation is that Yelp represents a tiny, non-representative sample (5 reviews vs. 227 on Google). Yelp users often post when unhappy, while satisfied customers may not bother. The BBB's clean complaint record suggests isolated issues, not systemic problems. The lack of registration in some databases could be because they operate as a sole proprietorship or questions about review curation or solicitation practices. Furthermore, the data is incomplete: we cannot verify the company's Texas franchise tax status (a key indicator of an active, compliant business), corporate registration, or insurance. The website returned a 403 error, preventing verification of their own claims. The lack of any reviews on platforms like Trustpilot and a minimal Angi presence (1 review) suggests their reputation is heavily managed on a single platform (Google).

Key Concerns:

Inconsistent Claims: Publicly claims 'Decades of Experience' but BBB records show founding in 2019 (6 years ago)., Review Discrepancy & Patterns: Massive gap between Google (4.9/227) and Yelp (2.6/5). High volume of recent, uniformly positive Google reviews with no negatives is a potential signal of review management/gaming., Data Gaps & Verification Failures: Cannot verify corporate/franchise tax status. Website inaccessible (403 error). Insurance and licensing partnership rather than an LLC, which is legal in Texas. The 403 error on their website is likely a temporary technical issue, not deception. The concentration of Google reviews 3-4 months ago could indicate a post-storm service push (common for roofers) rather than fake reviews, given the detailed content.

Positive Factors:

N/A

(if claimed) not verified.,
Young Company: At 6 years old, lacks the long-term track record that mitigates risk for major investments like roofing.

Points of Agreement

N/A

Points of Disagreement

N/A

Section 3: Red Flags

HIGH

Company marketing claims 'Decades of Experience' but BBB records show founding in 2019 (6 years ago). This is a material misrepresentation.

MEDIUM

Extreme review discrepancy and pattern: 4.9/5 from 227 reviews on Google with zero negatives in sample, vs. 2.6/5 from 5 reviews on Yelp citing communication/delay issues. The perfect Google score is statistically unusual.

MEDIUM

Primary company website returned a 403 Forbidden error, preventing verification of contracts, insurance, licensing, and other company claims.

LOW

Unable to verify active business registration or franchise tax status with the State of Texas Comptroller.

"text": "Qualis is by far the most professional roofing company I've ever had the pleasure of working with. My home is in Austin, and the entire team exceeded my expectations in every way. Project Manager Luke Miller was awesome; I cannot sing his praises highly enough. He took care of every single project detail from beginning to end, communicated with me almost daily, ensuring my roof replacement (and several other related repairs) went as smoothly as it did, and that I was completely satisfied. Matt Jones, VP Ops, came down from Dallas to personally supervise the site (his team oversees 350 roof replacement installs a year!). Matt Greiner, Qualis partner, took customer care to a whole new level, even letting my neighbors know ahead of time about the project so that they were aware. Not only were Luke, Matt J. and Matt G. a management dream team, but the crew did a fantastic install job, starting early in the morning, working even as the sky darkened and the wind started blowing (no rain though), continuing as the sun came back out and through to the end of the day when they did a thorough site cleanup. I highly recommend using Qualis GC for all of your roofing needs!",
